

Role Description and Eligibility Requirements for IPEM Professional Contributor

Role	RCT Assessor
Term of Office	Ongoing
No of Meetings	One training session
Appointment starts	Upon completion of training
Description of the role	To assess the applications from potential RCT registrants and determine their suitability for registration. For primary route applicants this will involve ensuring they hold the relevant qualifications. For equivalence applications this will involve assessing a portfolio report to determine whether they meet the criteria and have the relevant experience to be registered. In order to do this you must be working as a registered technologist with sufficient experience to assess an application. Full training for how to assess applicants will be provided beforehand.

Eligibility Requirements

Membership	Be registered as a Clinical Technologist with the RCT
Experience	Be working as a registered Clinical Technologist in one of the following scopes of practice: Medical engineering Radiotherapy physics Radiation physics Radiation engineering
Skills/Attributes	Be able to critically review a portfolio of evidence and determine that all criteria has been met.